CLUES IN THE PHOTO

1. Red jet boat with 'Thunder Jet' branding, a Queenstown operator berthed at the main town pier
   Thunder Jet is a jet boat operator based at Queenstown's town pier on Lake Wakatipu, pointing directly to Queenstown, New Zealand.
2. Jagged snow-capped range matching The Remarkables seen to the east
   The serrated snowy ridgeline matches The Remarkables range that rises behind Queenstown Bay.
3. Conifer-covered peninsula across the bay matching Queenstown Gardens
   A wooded peninsula of tall conifers jutting into the bay fits the Queenstown Gardens opposite the town waterfront.
4. Stepped concrete lakefront terraces with ducks, as on the Queenstown Bay foreshore
   The stepped lakeside promenade descending to the water with ducks matches the foreshore along Queenstown Bay.

EXPLANATION BY WYSS TERRA LOCATOR

The Thunder Jet branded boat is specific to Queenstown, and the skyline behind it matches The Remarkables seen across Lake Wakatipu. The conifer-covered peninsula on the right fits Queenstown Gardens, and the white heritage building and the kiosk on the left fit the Marine Parade frontage around Eichardt's. That puts the camera on the stepped lakefront on the western side of the bay, near the main pier and the Beach Street end, looking east. The image is a stitched panorama, so angles are distorted and the exact standpoint along the steps is uncertain by several tens of metres.

REVIEW BY WYSS TERRA VERIFIER

Verdict	Refined: the review narrowed the estimate down.
Distance between estimates	71 m
Note	All cited cues are present and consistent with Queenstown Bay: the Thunder Jet boat, The Remarkables, the Queenstown Gardens peninsula and the hillside houses. I moved the point slightly to the stepped lakefront near the main town pier and Beach Street end, where the Thunder Jet berth is, and tightened the radius.
